

California Biodiversity Council

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

Friday, June 7, 1996
Stone Hall, Miners Foundry
325 Spring Street
Nevada City, California

A G E N D A

- | | |
|---------------------|--|
| 8:30 - 8:45 am | Welcome and introductions - Michael Mantell, Resources Agency, Sacramento |
| 8:45 - 8:50 | Review and approval of minutes - Michael Mantell, Resources Agency, Sacramento |
| 8:50 - 9:00 | Report of the Executive Committee - John Amodio, Resources Agency, Sacramento |
| 9:00 - 9:30 | Council announcements |
| 9:30 - 12:30 | Fire: A Force Shaping Natural Resource Management and Human Development in the North-Central Sierra Nevada |
| 9:30 - 9:35 | Introductory remarks - Chauncey Poston, California Association of Resource Conservation Districts, Nevada City |
| 9:35 - 9:55 | An Overview of the June 6 Forum - Robert Roan, High Sierra Resource Conservation and Development District, Auburn |
| 9:55-10:15 | Restoring Natural Fire Regimes to the Sierra Nevada - Wayne Harrison, Calaveras District, California Department of Parks and Recreation, Arnold |
| 10:15-10:45 | Break and poster session |
| 10:45-11:05 | Examples of Projects Linking Fuels Management with Economic Development - John Sheehan, The Plumas Corporation, Quincy, and Betty Riley, Sierra Economic Development District, Auburn |
| 11:05-11:25 | The California Interagency Fire Strategies Committee - Richard Wilson, California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, Sacramento |

11:25-12:10	Lunch and panel discussion: How Should We Use Our Understanding of Fire in Future Planning for Natural Resources and Human Development? Moderator: Robert Harris, Supervisor, USFS Lake Tahoe Basin Management Unit, South Lake Tahoe A Perspective from Local Government - Ray Nutting, El Dorado County Board of Supervisors, Placerville A Perspective from Local Land Owners - Rich Gresham, Placer County Resource Conservation District, Auburn A Perspective from an Environmental Organization - Linda Blum, Sierra Nevada Alliance, Quincy
12:10-12:30	Public comment (opportunity for the public to address the Council)
12:30-4:30	Field Trip - Inimim Forest, San Juan Ridge
4:30 pm	Adjourn